

Developing the Quality Improvement agenda for Occupational Health

NHS Health at Work conference

Dr Robert Hardman
15 Sep 2016

Royal College
of Physicians

Setting higher standards

SEQOHS

Purpose

[To provide]clear standards of practice and formal accreditation of all [OH] providers [in the UK]

To improve the quality of OH delivery within the UK

SEQOHS

Success

196 services accredited in 6 years

202 services working towards accreditation

First services re-accrediting

Royal College
of Physicians

Setting higher standards

SEQOHS

Resources

Royal College
of Physicians

Setting higher standards

SEQOHS and the NHS

In Numbers

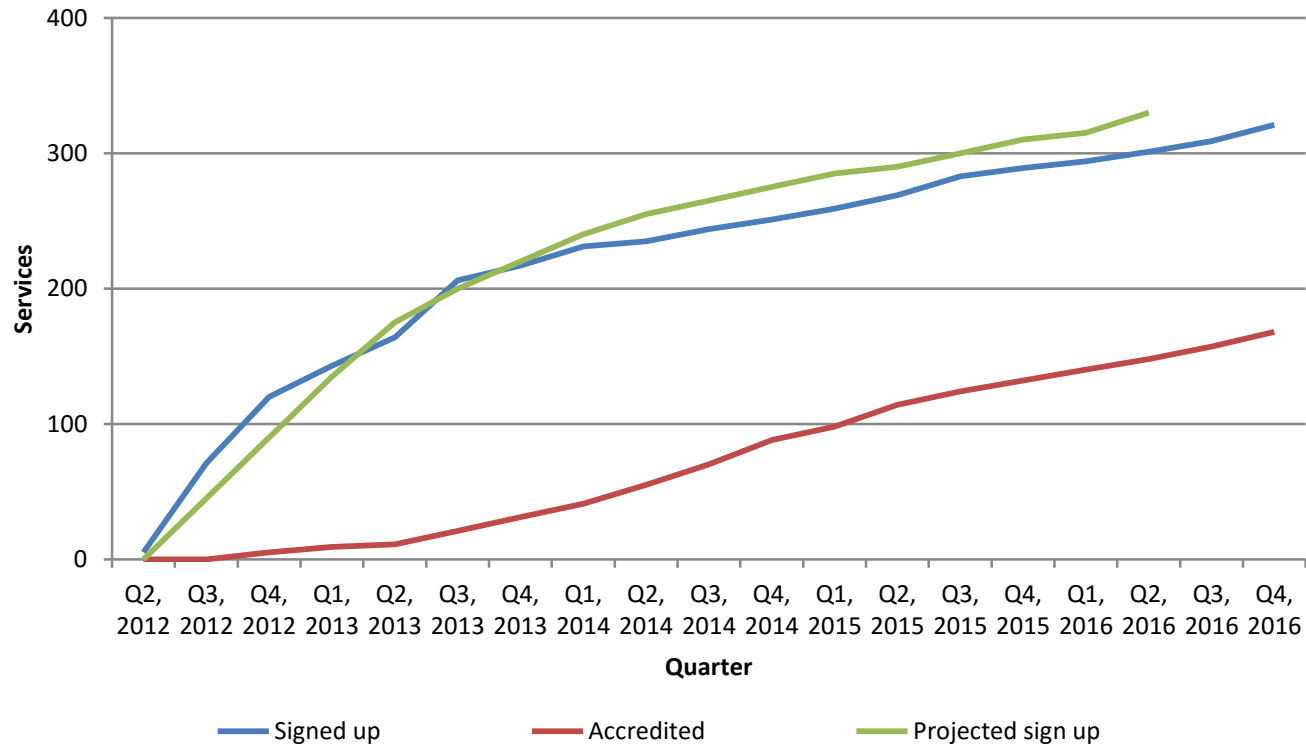

139 NHS services engaged (35% of the 398 total)

99 are accredited (50.5% of the 196 total)

40 are working towards accreditation (20% of the 202 total)

NHS services take 33 months to accredit (on average)...

Looking behind the numbers

4 groups of services within the NHS

- Early adopters- rapidly accredited
- Early adopters- not progressing
- Late adopters
- Non adopters

What SEQOHS plans to do

Existing NHS support & resources

- Steering group- Health at Work network representative
- Assessors

Gaining NHS expertise

Working Groups

Specific - no open ended commitment

Time limited- 3 months

Flexible - no face to face meetings

Working towards accreditation

Mentorship

What might it look like?

One off phone call

Time limited support of an online group

NHS specific support

SEQOHS is holding a training day for NHS services currently working towards accreditation. [December 2016]

This day will be offered first to the services that have been registered the longest with SEQOHS.

If you are interested in attending or speaking at this event, please email askseqohs@rcplondon.ac.uk

Domain [NHS]- turn back the clock?

Yes

No

Royal College
of Physicians

Setting higher standards

Quality Improvement

A national OH service?

Has not been delivered top down.

We can try grass routes?

Why not start with the NHS?

SEQOHS needs you

Sign up today to register your interest in:

- Working Groups
- Mentorship
- Training days
- Becoming an assessor
- To let us know your views of the domains

SEQOHS will...

Revise and improve

- Annual assessment process
- Reaccreditation
- Services profile on our website

