

Health at Work Network

Michael Shanaghey Yorkshire and the Humber Board representative

Michael qualified as a Registered Nurse in 1990 and has worked exclusively in the NHS in a variety of roles across several organisations. He originally worked in occupational health in the early 2000s and completed his occupational health training in 2003 before undertaking a range of senior nurse leadership positions.

Michael returned to occupational health in 2022 as Head of Occupational Health at Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and Doncaster & Bassetlaw Teaching Hospitals.

Michael is extremely ardent and resolute about empowering line managers, and getting the Trust mental and physical health, wellbeing & safety support offer correct, responsive and adaptable to needs. In addition, Michael supported and led the development and roll-out of a workforce health and wellbeing roadmap across the local Integrated Care Board patch.
